

Adventure Awaits!

AR scavenger hunt

QR codes are hidden throughout the Centerville and Washington Township ready for you to find! When you scan these codes with your smart device, you will be prompted to use Adobe Aero to view the augmented reality scene of the TSRC characters. If you do not wish to use Adobe Aero, you can still participate by using the information under the QR code. Use the clues below to find the codes and remember to write the secret word from each location. Bring this sheet back completed and correct to win a TSRC water bottle and candy.

Please be kind and respectful to all businesses that you engage with throughout this scavenger hunt. Any complaints from business will result in a termination of this contest and all claims to prizes.
